

The community shaping the industry

Your place in the IV industry starts here.

The American IV Association is bringing the industry together.

AIVA is building a stronger, more connected IV therapy industry by bringing together the clinics, providers, leaders, educators, and businesses shaping what comes next.

1,200+ IV Clinics • Industry Leaders • Key Vendors • Founding Members

There's a place for your business with AIVA!

AIVA Member

For IV Clinics, Providers & Operators

For the practices and professionals delivering IV therapy. Members gain access to education, industry resources, networking, events, business tools, member benefits, and a growing community of IV professionals.

Key Vendor

For Businesses That Support the IV Industry

For companies providing products, services, technology, education, and solutions to IV practices. Key Vendors become part of AIVA's trusted industry ecosystem, with opportunities to sit on internal committees and connect with the businesses actively operating and growing within IV therapy.

Founding Member

For Industry Leaders Helping Shape What's Next

For established organizations and leaders invested in the advancement of IV therapy. Founding Members directly help shape AIVA's mission and the long-term direction of the industry, with a seat on internal committees and close relationships with other influential leaders across the AIVA community.

Visibility & Reach

Be seen where the industry is looking.

AIVA membership is about more than access — it's about being part of the conversation. Depending on membership level and opportunities available, AIVA members, Key Vendors, and Founding Members may be featured throughout AIVA's ongoing industry outreach, including

Email Newsletters • Social Media Features • Educational Content • Industry Events • Community Spotlights

Beyond The Provider

The future of IV therapy is built by more than providers.

We're looking for the brands behind the people. AIVA is expanding its community to include the brands, products, and services that support IV professionals every day.

01 Scrub & Apparel Brands

Professional apparel, footwear, accessories & uniforms.

02 Wellness & Supplement Brands

Products that complement the modern wellness experience.

03 Technology & Software

Tools that make practices more efficient and connected.

04 Education & Training

Organizations helping professionals build knowledge and expertise.

05 Business & Professional Services

Marketing, staffing, finance, legal, insurance, payments & more

06 Medical & Clinical Suppliers

Products and solutions that support day-to-day practice.

"If you help IV professionals work, grow, or serve their patients better, there's a place for you at AIVA."
